Double Trouble: Gets 2nd Fine While Paying First
HARTFORD, CONN. — Hartford police got a dollar bill and a complaint from an irate citizen who objected to being fined for paying a fine.

The citizen protested because a ticket was placed on his auto parked outside the police station while he was paying the dollar levy on another he had received a few months before.

The letter enclosed the dollar and the words: "I didn't dare go up to pay the second one lest I find a third when I came downstairs again. This could go on indefinitely."

Warr Yanks in Germany
Against Secret Nuptials
FRANKFURT — In a move to discourage further clandestine marriages between Americans and Germans, army headquarters warned that such marriages would be punished by immediate discharge and removal from the occupation zone.

Army Wears Down 1,000 Jap Diehards in Luzon
MANILA, P. I. — The largest pocket of diehard Japanese on Luzon — a hungry, disease-ridden force estimated at about 1,000 in the mountainous San Jose section, 200 miles north of Manila — is steadily being reduced. The army captured Eusebio Bersada, a leader of the pro-Japanese Filipinos, and said patrols had taken 30 other prisoners and killed more than 100.
